

District 3

Adam Clark – Menan, ID

Adam Clark is a fifth-generation farmer and rancher from Menan, Idaho, and co-owner of Clark Farms LLC. The operation includes 1,200 acres of alfalfa, malt barley, and wheat, as well as a 500-head Black Angus cow-calf herd and custom farming services.

Adam and his wife, Kylee, are raising four children while continuing a farming tradition that began with a homestead in 1887. Adam is a graduate of Leadership Idaho Agriculture and a recipient of multiple Idaho Farm Bureau awards. He serves on several agricultural boards including Valley Wide Cooperative and Land O'Lakes Regional Council. Adam earned a bachelor's degree in Agribusiness, Science, and Technology from Brigham Young University–Idaho.