

District 1

Ben M. Adams – Coulee City, WA

Ben Adams is a fourth-generation dryland wheat farmer from Douglas County, Washington, operating Adams Farm Partnership. He farms alongside his wife, Jenny, their two daughters, his sister, and his mother, continuing a strong family farming legacy.

Ben has been widely recognized for his leadership in agriculture, including being named Washington Association Member of the Year and serving as President of the Washington Association of Wheat Growers. He currently serves on the Valley Wide Cooperative board, HighLine Grain Growers, and the Washington Grain Commission. Ben holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and Accounting from Whitworth University and is a licensed CPA.