

District 2

Chris Clelland – Notus, ID

Chris Clelland is the owner and operator of Northwest Hay Unlimited in Notus, Idaho, specializing in horse hay production for more than 30 years. His current production includes grain, alfalfa, orchard grass, and two-string alfalfa bales, with past experience in sugar beets and vegetable seed crops.

A first-generation farmer, Chris works alongside his wife, Christy, and their two children, Owen and Baylee, making the farm a true family operation. Chris was recognized with the National FFA Entrepreneurial Award in 1997. He currently serves on the Valley Wide Cooperative board, Valley Ag, Land O'Lakes Regional Council, Notus School Board, and Black Canyon Irrigation Board.
