

District 2

Jennifer Traughber – Jerome, ID

Jennifer Traughber has spent her entire life in agriculture and has operated a livestock and crop farming operation for over 45 years. Alongside her husband, Jake, she raises beef cattle and farms alfalfa, corn silage, and barley, while also managing agricultural properties.

Jennifer and Jake are considered first-generation farmers, having built their operation through hard work while balancing full-time careers. They raised two daughters deeply involved in agriculture, sports, and 4-H, instilling strong work ethics that continue into the next generation. Jennifer has received numerous honors, including Jerome Citizens of the Year and Kiwanian of the Year. She has held leadership roles with Valley Wide Cooperative, Rotary, Kiwanis, hospital foundations, chambers of commerce, and agricultural advisory committees. Jennifer also retired as a Senior Vice President in banking after 32 years of service.